it_Dopo la laurea in Disegno Industriale all'ISIA di Firenze, iniziano la loro avventura progettuale. In trent'anni di esperienza hanno maturato una grande cultura progettuale, al punto da essere considerati dalle aziende più dei partner che dei designer. La loro attività parte in Italia, con la fondazione dell'azienda Casamania, si estende in Europa e oggi sono richiesti in tutto il mondo. La loro terra è frutto di continua ispirazione, le esperienze internazionali di arricchimento costante.

en_Their adventure in planning and design began after graduating from the Higher Institute for Artistic Industries (ISIA) in Florence. Over thirty years, they have acquired such an impressive design culture that they are considered partners rather than designers by the companies they work with. Their career began in Italy, where they founded the company Casamania, before expanding into Europe and worldwide, where their services are increasingly requested. Their land of origin is an inexhaustible source of inspiration, while their international experience offers opportunities for constant improvement.
